Alleged Inhuman Treatment of the Crow of a Disabled Bark. A serious charge is made against Capt Hallburton, of the British steamship Bermuda, from Barbadoes, now in this port, by i seaman of his crew, who was spokesman for

The seaman alleges that Dec. 9, in latitude 36.51, longtitude 72.53, the American bark Silol, longtitude 72.53, the American bark Alice was sighted in distress. Her captain declared that his vessel was leaking budly, his crew worn out with pumping, and that they were destitute of provisions.
Capt. Haliburton, the Salior says, refused to aid the Alice, unless her captain would send his own boats for food. This the Alice's akipper said he could not do, as his men were too weak. Then the Bermuda bore away. A woman could be seen on the Alice's deck.
